Allen Dulles To Address Dallas Group

CPYRIGHT

The chief of the U. S. Central Intelligence Agency, Allen Welsh Dulles, will be speaker at the annual dinner meeting of the Dallas Council on World Affairs on Oct. 23, Glen G. Costin has announced.

Executive director of the council, Mr. Costin said the dinner meeting, open only to the 1,600 council members and their guests, will be held in the Baker Hotel's Crystal Ballroom.

The speaker, youngest brother of Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, directs the agency which provides information used by administration officials in determining United States policies.

The younger Dulles, now 60, served in the diplomatic field from 1916 to 1926, mostly on assignments in Europe which included disarmament commissions. He later joined the New York law firm of Sullivan and Cromwell.

In World War II, he served with the Office of Strategic Services.

A report on the council's activities will also be made by Mr. Costin. Officers and directors for the coming year will be elected.
